

Charity name: CYFANSODDWR IFANC DYFED ❖ THE YOUNG COMPOSER OF DYFED

THIS DECLARATION OF TRUST IS MADE

the 18th day of February 2004 by:

- June Williams, of 8 Cilddewi Park, Johnstown, CARMARTHEN, Carms., SA31 3HP
- Ruth Patricia Lewis, of 2 Ffordd y Briallu, Abergwili, CARMARTHEN, Carms., SA31 2JU
- Antony Russell Griew, of Greenhill, Llangunnor, CARMARTHEN, Carms., SA32 8EL
- Michael Parkin, of Middle Llether, Pen y Cwm, HAVERFORDWEST, Pems., SA62 6BA
- Janet Webb, of Maes yr Haf, Bronwydd Arms, CARMARTHEN, Carms., SA33 6HA the first trustees.

The first trustees hold the sum of £50 (fifty pounds sterling) on the trusts declared in this deed and they expect that more money or assets will be acquired by them on the same trusts.

NOW THIS DEED WITNESSES AS FOLLOWS:

1) Administration.

The charitable trust created by this deed ("the charity") shall be administered by the trustees. (In this deed, the expression "the trustees" refers to the individuals who are the trustees of the charity at any given time. It includes the first trustees and their successors. The word "trustee" is used to refer to any one of the trustees.)

2) Name.

The charity shall be called

CYFANSODDWR IFANC DYFED ❖ THE YOUNG COMPOSER OF DYFED

but the trustees may change the charity's name from time to time. Before doing so they must obtain the written approval of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales ("the Commission") for the new name.

The name 'Dyfed' refers, as at the creation of this deed of trust, to the three counties in Wales of Carmarthenshire, Ceredigion and Pembrokeshire.

3) Application of Income.

The trustees must apply the income of the charity in furthering the following objects ("the objects"):

To advance the education in musical composition of young persons up to and including the age of 22, resident in the counties of Carmarthenshire, Ceredigion, Pembrokeshire.

4) Application of Capital.

At their discretion, the trustees may spend all or part of the capital of the charity in furthering the objects.

5) Powers.

In addition to any other powers they have, the trustees may exercise any of the following powers in order to further the objects (but not for any other purpose):

- a) to raise funds. In exercising this power, the trustees must not undertake any substantial permanent trading activity and must comply with any relevant statutory regulations;
- b) to provide (for example):
 - c)
 - workshop sessions for teachers of composition and their students;
 - masterclass sessions for young composers;
 - young composers with the opportunity of working with professional musicians and of having their compositions professionally performed;
 - composition competitions for young persons.
- d) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire property and to maintain and equip it for use;
- e) to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the charity. In exercising this power, the trustees must comply with sections 36 and 37 of the Charities Act 1993;
- f) to borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed. The trustees must comply as appropriate with sections 38 and 39 of the Charities Act 1993 if they wish to mortgage land owned by the charity;
- g) to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them, subject to the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998;
- h) to establish or support any charitable trusts, associations or institutions formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the objects;
- i) to create such advisory committees, and to co-opt onto them non-trustees in an advisory capacity, as the trustees think fit;
- j) to employ and remunerate such staff as are necessary for carrying out the work of the charity;
- k) to do any other lawful thing that is necessary or desirable for the achievement of the objects.

6) Statutory Powers.

Nothing in this deed restricts or excludes the exercise by the trustees of the powers given by the Trustee Act 2000 as regards investment, the acquisition or disposal of land and the employment of agents, nominees and custodians.

7) Delegation

- a) In addition to their statutory powers, the trustees may delegate any of their powers or functions to a committee of two or more trustees. A committee must act in accordance with any directions given by the trustees. It must report its decisions and activities fully and promptly to the trustees. It must not incur expenditure on behalf of the charity except in accordance with a budget previously agreed by the trustees.
- b) The trustees must exercise their powers jointly at properly convened meetings except where they have:
 - i) Delegated the exercise of the powers (either under this provision or under any statutory provision), or
 - ii) Made some other arrangements, by regulations under clause 21.
- c) The trustees must consider from time to time whether the powers or functions which they have delegated should continue to be delegated.

8) Duty of care and extent of liability.

When exercising any power (whether given to them by this deed, or by statute, or by any rule of law) in administering or managing the charity, each of the trustees must use the level of care and skill that is reasonable in the circumstances, taking into account any special knowledge or experience that he or she has or claims to have ("the duty of care").

No trustee, and no one exercising powers or responsibilities that have been delegated by the trustees, shall be liable for any act or failure to act unless, in acting or failing to act, he or she has failed to discharge the duty of care.

9) Appointment of trustees.

- a) There must be at least three trustees. Apart from the first trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of four years, by a resolution of the trustees passed at a special meeting called under clause 15 of this deed. Trustees may be re-elected for one further period of four years, after which they will be ineligible to be a trustee for a period of one year.
- b) In selecting individuals for appointment as trustees, the trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the charity.
- c) The trustees must keep a record of the name and address and the dates of appointment, re-appointment and retirement of each trustee.
- d) The trustees must make available to each new trustee, on his or her first appointment:
 - i) A copy of this deed and any amendments made to it;

- ii) A copy of the charity's latest report and statement of accounts;
- e) The first trustees shall hold office for the following periods respectively:

June Williams - two years

Ruth Patricia Lewis - four years

Antony Russell Griew - two years

Michael Parkin - three years

Janet Webb - three years.

10) Eligibility for trusteeship.

- a) No one shall be appointed as a trustee:
 - i) if he or she is under the age of 18 years; or
 - ii) If he or she would at once be disqualified from office under the provisions of clause 11 of this deed.
- b) No one shall be entitled to act as a trustee whether on appointment or on any re-appointment as trustee until he or she has expressly acknowledged, in whatever way the trustees decide, his or her acceptance of the office of trustee of the charity.

11) Termination of trusteeship.

A trustee shall cease to hold office if he or she:

- a) Is disqualified from acting as a trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision;
- b) Becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing his or her own affairs;
- c) Is absent from three consecutive meetings of the trustees, unless the trustees resolve that there are circumstances that justify the absences; or
- d) Notifies to the trustees a wish to resign (but only if enough trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation takes effect to form a quorum for meetings).

12) Vacancies.

If a vacancy occurs the trustees must note the fact in the minutes of their next meeting. Any eligible trustee may be reappointed. So long as there are fewer than three trustees, none of the powers or discretions conferred by this deed or by the law on the trustees shall be exercisable by the remaining trustees except the power to appoint new trustees.

13) Ordinary meetings.

The trustees must hold at least two ordinary meetings each year. One such meeting in each year must involve the physical presence of those trustees who attend the meeting. Other meetings may take such form, including video-conferencing, as the trustees decide provided that the form chosen enables the trustees both to see and hear each other.

14) Calling meetings.

The trustees must arrange at each of their meetings the date, time and place of their next meeting, unless such arrangements have already been made. Ordinary meetings may also be called at any time by the person elected to chair meetings of the trustees or by any two trustees. In that case not less than ten clear days' notice must be given to the other trustees.

The first meeting of the trustees must be called by Antony Russell Griew or, if no meeting has been called within three months after the date of this deed, by any two of the trustees.

15) Special meetings.

A special meeting may be called at any time by the person elected to chair meetings of the trustees or by any two trustees. Not less than four days' clear notice must be given to the other trustees of the matters to be discussed at the meeting. However, if those matters include the appointment of a trustee or a proposal to amend any of the trusts of this deed, not less than 21 days' notice must be given. A special meeting may be called to take place immediately after or before an ordinary meeting.

16) Chairing of meetings.

The trustees at their first ordinary meeting in each financial year must elect one of their number to chair their meetings. The person elected shall always be eligible for re-election (subject to the provisions of clause 9a of this deed). If that person is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed to hold a meeting, or if no one has been elected, or if the person elected has ceased to be a trustee, the trustees present must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

The person elected to chair meetings of the trustees shall have no other additional functions or powers except those conferred by this deed or delegated to him or her by the trustees.

17) Quorum.

- a) Subject to the following provision of this clause, no business shall be conducted at a meeting of the trustees unless at least one third of the total number of trustees at the time, or two trustees (whichever is the greater) are present throughout the meeting.
- b) The trustees may make regulations specifying different quorums for meetings dealing with different types of business.

18) Voting.

At meetings, decisions must be made by the majority of trustees present and voting on the question. The person chairing the meeting shall have a casting vote whether or not he or she has voted previously on the same question but no trustee in any other circumstances shall have more than one vote.

19) Conflict of interest.

A trustee must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the trustees in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

20) Minutes.

The trustees must keep minutes, in books kept for the purpose or by such other means as the trustees decide, of the proceedings at their meetings. In the minutes the trustees must record their decisions and, where appropriate, the reasons for those decisions. The trustees must approve the minutes in accordance with the procedures, laid down in regulations made under clause 21 of this deed.

21) General power to make regulations.

The trustees may from time to time make regulations for the management of the charity and for the conduct of their business, including:

- a) The calling of meetings;
- b) Methods of making decisions in order to deal with cases of urgency when a meeting is impractical;
- c) The deposit of money at a bank;
- d) The custody of documents; and
- e) The keeping and authenticating of records. (If regulations made under this clause permit records of the charity to be kept in electronic form and require a trustee to sign the record, the regulations must specify a method of recording the signature that enables it to be properly authenticated.)

The trustees must not make regulations which are inconsistent with anything in this deed.

22) Accounts, Annual Report and Annual Return.

The trustees must comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993 with regard to:

- a) the keeping of accounting records for the charity;
- b) the preparation of annual statements of account for the charity;
- c) the auditing or independent examination of the statements of account of the charity; and
- d) the transmission of the statements of account of the charity to the Commission.
- e) the preparation of an annual report and its transmission to the Commission.
- f) The preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the Commission.

23) Registered particulars.

The trustees must notify the Commission promptly of any changes to the charity's entry on the Central Register of Charities.

24) Bank account.

Any bank or building society account in which any of the funds of the charity are deposited must be operated by the trustees and held in the name of the charity. Unless the regulations of the trustees make other provision, all cheques and orders for the payment of money from such an account shall be signed by at least two trustees.

25) Trustees not to benefit financially from their trusteeship.

- a) No trustee may buy goods or services from the charity, or sell goods or services to the charity, or receive remuneration, or receive any other financial benefit from the charity or from any trading company owned by the charity, except in accordance with this deed.
- b) The trustees may employ, or enter into a contract for the supply of goods or services with, one of their number. Before doing so, the trustees must be satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to employ, or contract with, that trustee rather than someone who has no connection with the charity. In reaching that decision, they must balance the advantage of employing a trustee against the disadvantages of doing so (especially the loss of the trustee's services as a result of dealing with the trustee's conflict of interest as required by the next subclause). The remuneration or other sums paid to the trustee must not exceed an amount that is reasonable in all the circumstances. The trustees must record the reason for their decision in their minute book.
- c) A trustee must be absent from the part of any meeting at which his or her employment or remuneration, or any matter concerning the contract, are discussed. He or she must also be absent from the part of any meeting at which his or her performance in that employment, or his or her performance of the contract, is considered. He or she must not vote on any matter relating to his employment or the contract and must not be counted when calculating whether a quorum of trustees is present at the meeting.
- d) This clause applies to a firm of which a trustee is a partner as it applies to a trustee personally.

26) Repair and insurance.

The trustees must keep in repair and insure to their full value against fire and other usual risks all the property of the charity (except those buildings that are required to be kept in repair and insured by a tenant). They must also insure suitably in respect of public liability and employer's liability.

27) Expenses.

The trustees may use the charity's funds to meet any necessary and reasonable expenses which they incur in the course of carrying out their responsibilities as trustees of the charity.

28) Amendment of this trust deed.

- a) The trustees may amend the provisions of this deed, provided that:
 - i) no amendment may be made to clause 3 (Application of Income), clause 8 (Duty of care), clause 25 (Trustees not to benefit financially from their trusteeship), clause 29 (Dissolution) or this clause without the prior consent in writing of the Commission; and
 - ii) no amendment may be made whose effect is that the charity ceases to be a charity at law.

- b) Any amendment of this deed must be made by deed following a decision of the trustees made at a special meeting.
- c) The trustees must send to the Commission a certified copy of the deed effecting any amendment made under this clause within three months if it being made.

29) Dissolution.

The trustees may dissolve the charity if they decide that it is necessary or desirable to do so. To be effective, a proposal to dissolve the charity must be passed at a special meeting by a two-thirds' majority of the trustees. Any assets of the charity that are left after the charity's debts have been paid ('the net assets') must be given:

- a) to another charity (or other charities) with objects that are no wider than the charity's own, for the general purposes of the recipient charity (or charities); or
- b) to any charity for use for particular purposes which fall within the charity's objects.

The Commission must be notified promptly that the charity has been dissolved and, if the trustees were obliged to send the charity's accounts to the Commission for the accounting period which ended before its dissolution, they must send the Commission the charity's final accounts.

30) Interpretation.

In this deed, all references to particular legislation are to be understood as references to legislation in force at the date of this deed and also to any subsequent legislation that adds to, modifies or replaces that legislation.
